

Seed

Our view – When it comes to the seed that farmers select, we believe it is our duty to put the best product in our growers’ hands. Our sales team at Integrated works hard to develop and maintain relationships with growers and their families. Through these relationships, growers know they can trust us and that we are working with them to maximize their ROI.

Regional Brands transition to Channel Seed

In the Summer of 2023, Bayer announced that the 10 Regional Brands (Stone Seed, Jung Seed Genetics, Fontanelle Hybrids, Gold Country Seed, Hubner Seed, Kruger Seeds, Lewis Seeds, Rea Hybrids, Specialty Hybrids, and Stewart Seeds) will combine with Channel Seeds. This move is to provide industry leading products as well as a next-level experience to growers.

Regional Brands will continue to be sold in the Fall and Winter of 2023 for Spring 2024. In the Fall and Winter of 2024, the Regional Brand offerings will transition to Channel for the Spring of 2025. Regional Brand products will be converted over to the Channel product numbering system.
